

NATURE ON THE BOARD

IT ALL BEGAN WITH A QUESTION

At somixa, we believe real flavor starts at the root — with clean, honest ingredients grown the right way. Our masalas are crafted using only 100% natural, plant-based, organic, and non-GMO ingredients, many of which are lovingly grown on our own farms or sourced fresh from trusted local farmers. We're passionate about sustainability, upcycling, and creating blends that nourish both the body and the planet.

Blending modern technology with time-honored traditions, we ensure every packet delivers bold, authentic taste with a touch of home. Our signature Phudina masalas — especially when paired with buttermilk — offer an unforgettable, comforting experience that feels both new and nostalgic. Taste the difference in every sprinkle.

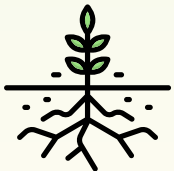

Genuine

Somixa uses ingredients in their purest form — untouched, unaltered, and free from synthetic additives or preservatives. What nature gives, we preserve.

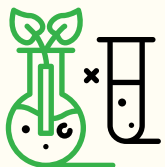

Responsibly Sourced

We work closely with local farmers and grow many ingredients on our own farms, ensuring every spice is ethically and sustainably sourced.

Rooted in Ancient Wisdom

Our blends are inspired by time-tested principles of traditional recipes, combining heritage knowledge with modern needs.

Lab Tested

Each batch undergoes rigorous lab testing to ensure safety, purity, and the highest quality — so you can trust what you taste.
